

I will sing of Your great love forever,
Of Your goodness and mercy outpoured.
I will never stop singing Your praise until
All the world knows that You are my Lord.

For Your faithfulness towers like mountains
And Your love flows like rivers below
And Your Spirit of Life is like eagles, soaring
Wherever Your wind will blow.

You are holy and righteous, our Father.
Your perfection no man can attain.
Why You care to befriend us and cherish us
Is a mystery none can explain.

For Your faithfulness towers like mountains
And Your love flows like rivers below
And Your Spirit of Life is like eagles, soaring
Wherever Your wind will blow.

I will sing of my beautiful Savior,
How Your love saved my soul from the snare,
How You guide me and lift me and carry me
To Your throne on a wing and a prayer.

For Your faithfulness towers like mountains
And Your love flows like rivers below
And Your Spirit of Life is like eagles, soaring
Wherever Your wind will blow –
It reaches wherever You want it to go
Wherever Your wind will blow.
