

Series Title: Unsettling Questions/Can the Bible be Trusted?

Main Idea: We can trust the Bible because there are good reasons to believe that the stories in the Bible are historical events.

Connecting

What was your earliest memory of a Bible? Where was it? How was it used?

What are some things you do every day that require trust?

Understanding

What preconceived notions do you have of the Bible?

Based on archaeological evidence, what are some good reasons to trust the Bible?

What does it mean to have a Biblical worldview?

What have you learned about God through his word?

Living

Is there a story from your life about a transformational truth you discovered in God's word?

Who in your life are you able to talk to about the questions you have or the things you are learning in the Bible?

What have you found helpful—given your “wiring” or personality type as you try to spend more time reading the Bible?

What are the next steps on your journey as you try to learn more about God through the Bible?
What's a reasonable goal to set for yourself?
