

Series Title: Unexpected Kingdom | Who's In, Who's Out?

Main Idea: Nothing is more important than the king and his kingdom.

Connecting

What do your family get-togethers look like? How big are they? Where/when are they held?

Is there any family significance to your name (were you named after a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle...)?

Understanding

Read Mark 3:13-19. What do you think are the significant points about the calling of the disciples?

Read Mark 3:20-35. Who is and isn't following Jesus at this point in his ministry? For those who are not, what are their concerns?

In Mark 3:20-30, Jesus warns the religious leaders about an unpardonable sin. What was at the heart of their error? How does Jesus respond?

Read Mark 3:33-35. What's the defining characteristic of the people Jesus calls family?

Living

Read Isaiah 55: 8-9. Have you ever been confused about what God is up to? How do you navigate confusion about what God is doing in your life?

Could you share an experience from your life about how God brought you through a confusing, uncertain time?

Who in your life do you wish was part of God's family? What's one way you can show them Christ's love this week? Spend some time praying for them.

Next Week: Mark 4:1-34
