

Read

Read Psalm 139 before you come to group.

Discuss

- How well do you know one another in your group? Start off your time together with some fun by playing Two Truths and a Lie.
- Read through Psalm 139 together as a group. What do we learn about who God is? What do we learn about who we are?
- What about Psalm 139 brings you comfort? Does anything about this Psalm cause you to feel uncomfortable?
- In the past, what's one example of how God has invaded your privacy and showed you an area that He has wanted to transform? How did He show that to you? What emotions did you feel during the process?

Pray

Pray Psalm 139 together as a group. Ask God to transform us as a church- to search us and to know us. Ask Him to root out anything that is offensive and lead us, together, in the way of Jesus.

Next Steps

At the end of the Psalm, David invites God to invade his privacy and bring about transformation in his life. Spend time each day reading Psalm 139, offering it as your prayer to God. Ask God to gently show you an area in your life that He wants to make new.
