

Volunteering at Savanna Oaks

Reading Coaches: Volunteers read one-on-one with a 6th-to-8th grader to work on fluency and comprehension. Volunteers receive training from the reading teacher. Time commitment is 45 minutes, one day per week, Tuesday through Friday. Time options: 8:30-9:19am, 12:14-1:03pm, 1:58-2:44pm. The 1:58-2:44pm time slot is the biggest current need. For questions or to volunteer, contact Holly Dowling at dowlingh@verona.k12.wi.us.

After School Ninja Academy: At the Ninja Academy, the focus is teaching and learning through a deliberate and thoughtful blend of content connected to success in school, with methods based on child and youth development. Volunteers are paired with individual or small groups to assist mostly with math and language arts projects. The Ninja Academy is Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, 3:30 – 5:30. Volunteering frequency and commitment is flexible. For more information or to sign up: <https://sites.google.com/a/verona.k12.wi.us/ninja-academy/>

Library – Pulling or Putting Books Away: Volunteers needed for an hour or two, once per week. For questions or to volunteer, contact JoAnn Busalacchi at busalacj@verona.k12.wi.us.
